305 Penny of Henry III., 1216 to 1272. Ob. "Hcnricus Rex III.;" rev., long double cross, with three pellets; Moneyer's name, Willem; fair and scarce.

306 Penny of Edward I., 1272 to 1307; ob. full face "Edw. R. Angel Dns. Hyb.;" rev. Civitas London—long cross, 3 pellets in each angle, really very fair for the period, and scarce.

✓ 307 A full set of the money of Queen Elizabeth, 1558 to 1603, from the crown to the penny. The only entire set I have ever known to be offered at public or private sale. The crown has been rubbed on the obverse, the head of the Queen being much worn; in other respects it would be a fine crown. The half-crown has been rubbed in a similar manner, but is much rarer than the crown. The shilling is the rare one, with the small bust. This, and all the rest, are in satisfactory condition. The set contains eight pieces.

✓ 308 Charles I., 1625 to 1649. Half crown. Ob. King on horse-back. Mint mark, anchor, poor, but scarce.

✓ 309 Shilling of same monarch, head to left, very poor.

✓ 310 Scotch Shilling, of James I. of England and VI. of Scotland; mint mark, Thistle flower-crowned; head rubbed, but otherwise fair; scarce.

✓ 311 Charles II., 1660 to 1685. Pattern farthing in Silver; ob. head looking left; reverse, "Quatuor Maria vindico," in very fair condition for the period: very scarce.

✓ 313 William and Mary, 1688 to 1695; ob., Heads looking left; rev., Britannia 1694; farthing in silver; but little circulated and very scarce.

✓ 314 Pattern farthing in silver; ob., Head of William; rev. Head of Mary; barely fair and scarce.

✓ 315 George III. 1760 to 1820; Shilling of 1763; good and rather scarce type.

✓ 316 Medal of George III. and Queen Charlotte, face to face; a Marriage Medal; rev., Royal Arms; pierced and rather poor, size 24.

✓ 317 1798; Half Guinea in copper, with broad rim; very fine, and scarce.

✓ 318 1847; Proof of the Gothic Crown of Queen Victoria, of which there were but a few struck, having been called in.

✓ 319 1828; George IV. Shilling; also a Victoria Shilling, and Twenty Cent Canada piece; all good.

7/320 1848; Silver Fourpence of Victoria, and copper Half Farthing; good.

1321 Two Model Crowns, struck in white metal with centre pieces, with the head of Victoria on them in copper and German silver; both entirely different in obverse and reverse.

1322 Bronze proof Halfpenny of George II.; very good, but rather dull.

AMERICAN CENTS.

40323 1800; in barely fair condition; scarce.

30324 1800; another in fair condition; struck over 1799, figure 7, very plain; scarce.

30325 1817; very little circulated.

20326 1818; light olive color, fine.

30327 1818; cracked die, but little circulated.

30328 1819; red and uncirculated.
